

WHAT ARE YOU DESPERATE FOR _____
"Comfort or Dependency"

Connect:

- Take some time and talk about how the past week went for you?
- If you had to give up one of your senses (hearing, touching, tasting, seeing, or smelling) which would it be, and why?

Grow:

- Big Idea: God and the world have different bulls-eyes on the target of our lives.
- Refer to the visual below as you discuss these questions.
- Share an example of a need (marital, financial, spiritual, physical, etc.) that has brought you to a place of desperation.
- Read 1 Corinthians 3:11-14. What are some things in your life you are desperate for that are built on a foundation that will survive when tested, (dependency)? What are some things in your life you are desperate for that are built on a foundation that will burn up when tested, (comfort)?
- Read Galatians 5:17. Time to get real! Talk about some of the struggles you face between the flesh and the Spirit. What is something God is calling you to start doing, stop doing, give up, or give in? A relationship? A habit? A vice? An attitude?
- We talked this week about the fact that whatever we are desperate for, we make a priority and make time for. What does your life say about what you are desperate for?

Go:

- Pastor Brad challenged us to seek God's truth everyday up until Easter through regular Bible reading. Share with your group how you plan to accomplish this. How can you hold one-another accountable?
- Show up next week for weekend service and bring someone with you that needs to hear this message.
- Attend the Growth Track next weekend.
- Serve together by helping out with the upcoming kettle corn ministry opportunities. click here to sign up
